MONDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1909.

++ NEW YORK, MONDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1909, -Copyright, 1900, by the Sun Printing and Publishing Association.

SAYS HEARST BROKE PROMISE GAYNOR CHARGES BAD FAITH AND ALSO JEALOUSY.

VOL. LXXVII.-NO. 41.

Gives Out a Letter and Statement to Prove That Hearst Promised Him Personally to Support Him on Any Ticket-All Untrue Says Hearst.

Justice William J. Gaynor issued statement last night about William R. Hearst and the report that Hearst had promised to support him if he decided to become a candidate for Mayor. He said that Hearst had promised him personally to support him and that Hearst's decision to run against him as an independent candidate is based on persona vanity and jealousy.

With the statement was the copy of letter to Justice Gaynor written by Rudolph Block of the American's editorial staff. The Justice's statement bemoans the lack of faith displayed by Hearst and expresses a fear that Hearst's millions may crush him unless the voters realize the dangers of corruption and rally to his support.

The Block letter said: Shortly before Mr. Hearst left for Europe last summer he asked me to bring you to his house. I thinkfthis was the second or third time you had ever seen him. He asked you if you would not run for Mayor in the fall. You asked him why he did not run himself and said that if he desired to run or would run you would not get in his way. He answered that under no circumstance would be run and urged you to run. You asked on what ticket. He responded: "I don't care what ticket you run on.

I suggested then that perhaps Tamman might nominate you. He answered: It makes no difference what party nominates him, I will support him."

I'll support you on any ticket.

"I am not opposed to Tammany, but to it is entitled to credit." You thanked Mr. Hearst and said that you might go to Europe in August and that you would think the matter over. He exyour decision after you got back. He said that if you wanted any article favoring or leading to your candidacy to be published in the American during his absence I was to see that it went in. ... the manufacture is no recuperative power in the American during his absence I was to see that it went in. ... the manufacture is no recuperative power in our sinful nature. All the good comes from God's touch. The social reformers ressed a wish that you would see him

Justice Gaynor supplements the fore-

To this statement of Mr. Block, who is member of Mr. Hearst's distinguished itorial staff at a large salary, I add that after returning from Europe I saw Mr Hearst in September, according to promise I said to him that a large number of organisations had already declared for me for Mayor and that I might conclude to run.

He said that he had in no way changed his mind and that he would support me atever ticket I ran on or whoever nomi-ted me. He reiterated this repeatedly with apparent earnestness. He came into the half to the elevator as I was eaving and took me by the hand and told ne to come out with a statement that I would run and that he would support me.

days later my letter to the com could not believe it at first, but when it became beyond a doubt I sent a verbal message to Mr. Hearst that his conduct had given me the most painful shock I had ever experienced, as up to that time

Mr. Block, and by letter from other reputa-ble persons who were about Mr. Hearst, that he did not deny he made the promise to me, but claimed at the time he made it to me, out claimed at the time he made it be meant only "regular" nominations, and that "Tammany" never entered his mind. I do not understand this use of the word "regular" unless he wants to claim that his promise did not include the nomination of me by petition. Mr. Block informed me that he at once informed Mr. Hearst that "Tammany" had been expressly mentioned and that Mr. Hearst finally admitted it. He then began to favor me in a way and, as every one knows, finally came out openly with a statement three or four days ago that he would support me and advising all members of the Independence League to vote for me. Justice Gaynor then says that the Inde pendence League men were found to the convention to be held and cried fraud and that the league's ballot boxes had been stuffed. The Justice says there were not enough voters enrolled to stuff a teacup, let alone a ballot box. Justice Gaynor adds:

And yet the bald statement of Mr. Hearst that Charles F. Murphy or Tammany or some one stole his primaries or stuffed his ballot boxes seems to have been gulped down by every partisan newspaper in the city. I can only say that prominent men in the league informed me that the sentiment of the league was overwhelmingly for me, and that they proposed to help to have delegates chosen for me at the primaries, the convention to be called, and is having himself nominated by petition against me.

I never had a moment's jealousy of Mr. Hearst and hate to see his heart so blinded with jealousy and hate of me. I am fully conscious that his great estate of from $50,000,000 to $65,000,000 gives him a huge advantage over me in one respect, but I until the air cleared yesterday morning am ready to meet him before the people of Her skipper notified his agent here by

I suppose we are about to witness again such a lavish use of money by a candidate for office as was never before witnessed in American politics, and which, if continued, must in the end debase and corrupt our politics and our system of government. But it may be that with all his money and newspapers and power the people of New York may not let him run over me so easily

Mr. Hearst gave out this statement last night in reply to Justice Gaynor:

M Judge Gaynor has stated that I promised to support him under any and all circumstances and upon any and all tickets he states wha is positively untrue. I will try to assume that he is honestly a deeply loved brother to whom a blind de-votion might be due. He has been to me merely a representative of certain ideas, an exponent of certain principles. While he was supporting those principles I sup-ported him. When he deserted those prin-ciples I parted from him.

I made a public statement of my atti-ude on September 3. If that statemen was wrong why did he not correct me then? I said in a public speech before the county committee of the Independence League: "We will know whether or not we can support Judge Gaynor when we know for what he stands and with whom he stands."

I said on October 6 that I believed Judge Gaynor's opinions would prove to be en-tirely satisfactory, but that he must be explicit and definite in the statement of his opinions, and that he must explain adequately to us independents how he was roing to be able to conduct his fight success-from the inside of the Tiger. stone. He invited us independents to en-roll under the stained and draggled banners of Tammany Hall, and in order to elect him Mayor to abandon our opinions, our principles, our morals, our independence, our self-respect. He demanded that we tolerate his political associates and forget his personal treachery.

I have never pledged myself to support Judge Gaynor, but if I had I would have feit myself relieved of any pledge by so nfamous a proposal.

It is not true that I ever asked Judge

Gaynor to come to my house in order to urge him to accept a nomination. He came humbly up to my house once, twice, thrice, hat in hand, of his own accord and n his own interest. And I have no doubt that he in the same abject attitude. It is not true that I told Rudolph Block or Judge Gaynor himself or any one tha I would support Judge Gaynor under any and all conditions. As for Mr. Block, the "distinguished edi torial associate" to whom Judge Gaynor so respectfully and ludicrously refers, he is the editor of the comic supplement of my Sunday paper, the sponsor for Happy Hooligan, the Katzenjammer Kids and Judge Gaynor.

TWO STORMS ON THE MAP. Kansas and Cuba Between Them May Unset Our Placid October.

The new interpreter of sky signs, James H. Searr, who ought to know something more than the average American about Tammany methods, and when it does right national meteorology, having been a esident of all the States where they have big storms, remarked yesterday after looking over his weather map that there was nothing to indicate an immediate

The unchanged conditions for the last few days were due in part to the slug-gishness of the storm that originated on Saturday in Kansas, where the new forecaster was educated. The storm devel oped into a fine Western swirler. Two highs" on the east and west of it clongated it to an oval, while another high to the north held it stationary more than a day. It got going swiftly yesterday morning and by night its centre had reached Duluth and its northeast quadrant was making trouble for the navigators of Lake Su perior. This storm may cause a slight change in the conditions hereabout to-day. But there is a real West India hurricane on its way into the country the in a limited way if in no other. This mittee of nine was written. A few days which the Weather Bureau calls a "tropilater the newspapers all announced that Mr. Hearst was participating in what was called the fusion conference between the Republican leaders, the committee of the storm had invaded the west end of Cuba. special bulletin warning nearly all ports along the Gulf of Mexico. Tampa still falling last night when the Weather Bureau heard from its expert there. The bulletin advised the hoisting of northeast storm signals for Mobile, Pensacola, Appalachicola, Tampa, Key West and other Gulf points, and said the disturbance was moving in toward Mobile apparently with increasing velocity. Whether or not the hurricane will be diverted from its apparent course toward the Gulf States may not be told until the prophets make up their weather map this forning after getting 8 o'clock data from the forecasters in the hurricane

Washington predicts rain for this neighborhood to-day, with brisk southerly winds dragged up by the storm was over the lake regions last night.

FOG'S TURN ON THE HUDSON Two Night Boats Couldn't Get Here Until the Evening After.

The steamboat Adirondack of Peoples Line, with several hundred pas-Peoples Line, with several hundred passengers, due at her pier at the foot of Canal street about & o'clock yesterday morning, did not get in until after & o'clock last evening. She found the Hudson clogged with fog soon after she left Albany and she anchored at Hudson until yesterday morning. Her wireless would not reach New York because of unfavorable aerial conditions and yesterday morning she sent a boat ashore with a message for the wire notifying the agent here that she would be about twelve hours late. The assurance that she was and they did so, although I requested them to take no such part for me.

There is not a pretence of any irregularity even in more than two or three districts throughout the city, and yet four-fifths of the elected delegates all over the city are for me, I am informed. Mr. Hearst now repudiates his league party, will not permit the convention to be called, and is having himself nominated by petition against me.

due from Troy early in the morning, did not tie up at the foot of West Tenth street until after 5 o'clock last evening. She too was held up by fog and anchored at Castleton, nine miles south of Albany, telegraph.

Forbes After a Balloon Record

tnessed in continued.

A. Holland Forbes, first vice-president rrupt our of the Aero Club of America, will pilot of the balloon New York from St. Louis next Wednesday for a cross-country record. If the weather conditions are not satisfactory on that day he will await a favorable opportunity. Mr. Forbes will attempt to win the Lahm cup. He will take as assistant Max C. Fleichman.

New Crop of Mosquitoes Arrives.

The balmy weather yesterday brought to Bayonne from across Newark Bay a mistaken, but it is difficult for me to do so, as the proposition is so unreasonable that it bears its refutation on its face.

Judge Gaynor is not a lifelong friend or a deeply loved brother to whom a blind de-

HARVEST FOR HIS MISSIONS PUT AT $64,000.

Handed Up Amid Hallelujahe at the Gospej Tabernacie-Sophia Dances Before the Lord After Making Her Gift-Highest Single Pledge $7,200.

"How much do I care for perishing

The answer was $64,000 in cash and eledges, mostly pledges, given for misreceiving the gift the Rev. Dr. A. B. Simpson dedicated it to the Lord, and his hearers and contributors in the Gospel Tabernacle in Eighth avenue sang a hymn.

There were no offerings of jewels yester day morning-perhaps they have all been yielded in former years-but the spirit was still willing if the material was spent. One of the doctor's follow vrs offered herself by written pledge for the work "in the field," the work of missionary endeavor in the Orient-she was a trained urse and another whose sex and calling were not given offered "myself: 'tis all I have to give," and so wrote on the pledge. "Praise the Lord!" said Dr. Simpson.

He had been speaking to a crowded houseful on the parable of the Good Samaritan. He had told them that he had once given all he possessed; it was thirty years ago in the old Academy of Music in Fourteenth street in this city and not until the last dollar was gone did money begin to come in.

"But God repays," said the doctor: since then He has sent into this work more than $4,000,000. The whole question is: How much do we care? How much are we doing? Who is our neighbor? How much do I care for perishing men? We see a picture of a lost and suffering world. Notwithstanding what humanitarian dreamers say, the course of mankind is downward. It is not the ascent of man but the descent of man. The devil has been robbing men always and he is busy to-day.

"The devil leaves us when he has taken than cowardly priests have done, but their work isn't adequate. They are on the wrong side of help for fallen man. It's not a question of economic adjustment. It's a question of Christ. Get men saved and the temperance question will take care of itself. Get me and the question of divorce will be set-

Glory be to God! O, yes. amen! Glory

These exclamations in interruption came from all over the hall; it was as though an old time Methodist camp meeting were in progress.

"There's nothing aggressive in human religion," the preacher continued. "Mark Twain brought out the point in his recent paper on Christian Science that like all other human religions its spirit was self-ishness. So with Buddhism and the religion of China; there's no help there may be happy; if you do not so much the worse.' But Christianity goes to lost

"Have we no tears to mingle with those of Jesus for a lost world? Did Christ o'er sinners weep and shall our eyes be dry? Shall we dare to hoard the bread of life while they in the darkness sob their way while they in the darkness sob their way lated the spirit of the Church's forms to the grave? Jesus has paid our debts when it licensed Black to preach. our pocketbooks?"

Hallelujah! Here is my The speaker was a middle aged woman. Sing and dance," she exclaimed, after having handed her money to the doctor, and she suited action to word and in the spirit of David danced before the Lord. "Praise the Lord!" said Mr. Simpson. "I've had another $15 this morning. Sorry Sophie could not have the honor time of being the first to contribute."

Mr. Simpson said that the "certain rich man" was lost, lost forever, because he would not sell his goods and follow the Lord.

"Dante pictures him in the place of the lost, suffering for evermore, eternally lost, all because he was selfish, because he did not know who was his neighbor. The little girl thrown into the river in because she was a girl-she is your neighbor. It costs $300 to support a missionary in China for a year. For $6 a week you can have your own missionary. The piedges began to come in and or. Simpson read them off. "Five dollars, Dr. Simpson read them off. "Five dollars, fifteen dollars, twenty-five dollars, five hundred dollars!" The planist started and the congregation joined in singing "Bring Them In." "Thirty-five dollars, six hundred dollars, five dollars," and the audience sang The Path Is Very Narrow, But I'll

"Two dollars, one hundred dollars, seven thousand dollars." And the hall resounded with the hymn

Jesus Is a Friend of Mine." "Fifty cents -- praise God!" said the "one dollar, eleven dollars and sixty-two cents, two hundred dollars, one thousand dollars." The congregation sung a hallelujah chorus. More than 360 pledges were read by Dr. Simpson, and their total was anunced as approximating $40,000. are payable at the convenience of the signers within twelve months.

The pledges ran from 50 cents

There was one for $7,000, one for $5,000, one for $3,500, one for $2,200, one for $2,000, two for $1,000 each, one for $800, one for $500 and several for $100, $300 and $300 while the cards were being carried up the ushers collected in cash $4,858. not counting silver, which Dr. Simpson said would be counted later, when the afternoon session had raised the total of the contributions. Later it was announced that $45,000 had been raised in the morning and $21,000 in the afternoon. The day was the day of Dr. Simpson's annual missionary sermon on behalf of his Christian and Missionary Alliance.

HUGE CROWD TO SEE PLIERS. ENGINEER DEAD IN HIS BATH

200,000 People Pay Gate Money at Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

Paris, Oct. 10.-Extraordinary scene occurred to-day at the stations of the railroads running to Juvisy, where the aviation meeting was in progress. Fully 200,000 persons paid the entrance fee and watched the flights from within, while thousands of others enjoyed a free view from the surrounding country.

The number would have been greatly creased if all who wished to go to Juvisy could have got there. The three Paris stations whence the Juvisy trains started were besieged all the afternoon by a Sunday holiday crowd. The service was completely congested and it of forty minutes.

When the crowds began to return and ound they were unable to get trains at Juvisy they smashed all the glass in the station and every train arriving at Paris had all its windows broken.

Lambert with a Wright machine wo wo prizes of $200 each for the best single lap, which he covered in 2 minutes 9 econds, and for the best two laps, which occupied & minutes 16 seconds. He also established good records for the Seine Council and the Paris Municipal prizes, beating the time of Paulhan one of the Reims heroes, for five round by 2 minutes 43 seconds.

FINDS HER FATHER MURDERED Girl Mistakes Body for Scarcerow

Washington, Pa., Oct. 10.—"Look, somebody has knocked down papa's scarecrow. Wait till I go over and set up," said Miss Maude Heufnagle to a companion while walking through a corn field on their way to church near Paris this morning.

A moment later the companion found Miss Heufnagle in a faint beside the body of her father, which the daughter had mistaken for the scarecrow. literally hacked to pieces by his slayers. Heufnagle was one of the wealthiest residents of Washington county. He eft home on September 30 to go to Pitts burg to visit for a week or more with a sick daughter. On his way to the train he took a short cut along a path through a corn field. This was the last seen of him, and it is believed that he was way-laid and murdered while walking along this path Heufnagie's left arm was broken ap-parently as he warded off a blow from some heavy weapon. His face is laid open with long and jagged cuts and the neck had been almost severed.

Heuthagle had a large sum and some valuable papers in ing, and these are missing.

ANOTHER FUSS OVER BLACK. Presbyterians Who Don't Want Him Presch Will Be Heard To-day.

Friction has developed in the New in his recent that like all thirty ministers out of a total of more than two hundred against the ordination of the Rev. Archibald Black and his installation as pastor of the Bedford Park the Fourth Church, the Rev. Dr. John Fox of the American Bible Society, the Dr. Daniel S. Gregory, secretary of the Bible League of America. The protest is as follows: That the New York Presbytery vio-That examination for the ministry has given place to examination for lic

That he rejects the Bible as his guide, doubts the Virgin birth, does not accept physical resurrection of Christ and thus goes as far as it is possible for any one to do in agnosticism.

Against the protesters there is much impatience on the part of some of the foremost men in the Presbyterian Church in New York. This afternoon a spe meeting of the Presbytery is to be held to receive this protest and to consider whether it is to be advanced to the Synod of New York, and if so in what form. It is expected by some that Mr. Black, who is a brother of the Rev. Dr. Hugh Black, will appear and make a statement. It his views and may do so further. Others say there is no occasion for him to do so. The trouble grows out of an alleged unsatisfactory examination of three theological students, Archibald Black, John S. Steen and George A. Fitch, after graduation from the seminary last spring.

The students came from Union Theological Seminary. Between the seminary and the Presbyterian Church officially there is a gulf and it is charged that its graduates are often made to suffer in consequence. Black is wanted by the Bedford Park congregation, Steen is said to have lost a $4,000 a year call and Fitch has gone into Y. M. C. A. work.

NEW MET. S. S. CO. CHARTER. Maine Corporation to Take Over Sold by Auction Last Friday.

AUGUSTA, Me., Oct. 10 .- The Metropolitan Steamship Company Lines, a new corporation formed to take over the Metropolitan Steamship Company, the assets of which were sold by auction under foreclosure in Boston last Friday, will file a certificate with the Secretary of State to-morrow. The corporation is authorized to conduct a general steamship business and Bath is pamed as the home office. The capital stock is placed at $3,000,000, par $1, with nothing paid in. Charles W. Morse of New York is president. J. W. McKinnon of Chicago, who bid in the property, is vice-president; C. Carrington of New York is treasurer and Charles L. Andrews of Augusta is colerk. The first named three with Walter R. Reid of Waterville and George P. Shaw of Philadelphia constitute the board of directors, but four more will be shown later.

MAY HAVE TAKEN TOO MUCH CHLORAL.

He Was Accustomed to Use Drug to Make Him Sleep Oxley's Wife Had Left Him on Saturday-She Took Up Christian Science; He Didn't Approve.

Eustace Oxley, an electrical enginee was found dead in a bathfub yesterday afternoon in his rooms in the Herald apartments, at 439 Manhattan avenue His body was discovered by his brothe Alfred, who had left him less than an hour before. Coroner's Physician O'Hanlon said that it may have been an accident. The tub was half filled with took three hours to reach Juvisy instead water, but death was not due to suffoca-

Alfred Oxley of $507 Fifth avenue, Brooklyn, had been calling on his brother yesterday afternoon and went out for lunch. On his return he found the body. He said that his brother had not been feeling well for some time and that he was addicted to the use of chloral to make him sleep. Perhaps he had taken too

Upon questioning Alfred the Coroner, learned that Mrs. Eustace Oxley and her husband had not been very happy during the last six or seven years. Mrs. Oxley recently took up Christian Science and the brother said Eustace did not approve. Eustace had told him earlier in the day that Mrs. Oxley had left him Saturday She did not tell where she was going.

During his visit yesterday afternoon Alfred said that his brother had com lained of ill health. It was the fire plained of ill health. It was the meet time that Alfred had seen him for over a month, and he noticed a great change in the brother's appearance. But Eusthough he was not feeling well.

As to the disagreement between Mr. and Mrs. Eustace Oxley, Alfred could they were not in harmony and that his brother grieved a lot over it. He had no idea of the present whereabouts of Mrs.

from London twenty years ago and en-tered the employ of the General Electric Company. Three years later he marrie He was an electrical engineer and a number of inventions. He was a ber of Polar Lodge F. and A. M.

BRIAND OPTIMISTIC. New French Premier Thinks Rept Dangers Have Passed Away.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.
PARIS, Oct. 10.—Prime Minister Brian made an important speech to-day Perigueux preparatory to the reopen of the Chamber of Deputies on Octob 19. He said he considered that the repulic had now lived through its period strife and that the era of appearament tion, he asserted, had been regulated with justice, leaving the Catholics masters of their consciences and churches, allowing them the poss bility of retaining the disposal of their property and permitting them to recruit heir forces and to live and prosper. The Government's first act would to pass laws for pensions for workingmen.

He apsaled to everybody not to allow local interests to be opposed to the general interest, and he spoke of collaboration. between capital and labor by participa-

M. Briand's opponents are always throwing in his teeth his defence of Herve in 1903, when the latter was prosecute for his anti-military writings. tude has since become more violent. It was expected that the Premier would refer to this subject to-day, and he did indirectly in an eloquent burst of praise for France. He said:

"When I think there are people who question the patriotic conscience of this nation I exclaim, 'Would it not be the orime of less humanité to abando land before the enemy? There is madnes in the minds of those who propagat certain detestable theories. Happily we have seen at the manouvres the mili-tary force of France. This country in tends to live, and in the hour of dange all Frenchmen will arise to defend thei-beloved fatherland."

AL SMITH IS DEAD.

Old Sporting Man Was One of the Guard" of the Gilsey House. Al Smith, stakeholder for prize fights and one of the best known sporting men in New York, also a guest of the Gilsey House since 1875, died at that hotel at 1 o'clock this morning of heart trouble. Mr. Smith had been ill for a year suffering from a general breakdown. For the past few months he had had a great deal of trouble with asthma, which finally affected his heart. He was 70 years old. Smith started in life as a miner in Colorado. He made a good deal of mone out of prospecting, and just after the wai came to New York, where he immediately became identified with sporting affairs. He took John L. Sullivan on one exhibi-tion trip through the West, and it was said at the time that he made a clear profit of so mething like $100,000 out of the ex-tion trip through the West, and it was said at the time that he made a clear profit of so mething like $100,000 out of the experiment.

During the heyday of the New York tenderloin, Smith was associated with Dutch Thompson in running the White Elephant, at Thirty-first street and Broadway, one of the most famous pool-rooms and gambling resorts of the day. Of late years he had been living very quietly. At the Gilsey House he had been one of the ooterie known under the name of the "old guard."

Smith fought through the civil war as a member of the Seventh Missouri Volunteers, taking part in the engagements at Wilson's Creek, Carthage and other points. He prided himself that his mame appears once and only once on the register of the Gilsey House—the signature which he wrote when he first went to the hotel thirty-four years ago. He had kept the same rooms in the tower of the hotel since that time.

In 1996, when there was a row over the hotel property, the house was "closed." the light and water were turned off, and all the guests but the "old guard" left the place. The little 'coterie bought candles, sent out for water; and stayed on in their same rooms until the row was over and the hotel was declared to be open again.

Smith spent most of his summers at over and the note: was commercial. Smith spent most of his summers at Saratoga. He never was married. The only persons with him when heldied were a naphew. T. H. Langdon, and Dr. Townsend, the hotel physician. He had a sister living in Westerly, R. I. This sister was notified of her brother's death this morning and the funeral arrangements will await her decision.

REGISTER TO-DAY.

It is the Last Chance and the Figures Ar

This is the last day of registration Although the city has presumably in creased 7 or 8 per cent. in population in the four years since there was a Mayoralty election the registration of the three days this year is 18,433 behind the first three days of 1905

A total of 481,734 voters have registere so far this year in the whole city. It would take 197,000 more to-day to bring the four days figures up to last year's or 165,000 to bring them up to those of 1995 Register to-day.

THE THREE HANDED CLOCK.

Eight Hoar League of Unen Nominate Denovan for Mayer.

by Alexander Law, president of the Eight Hour League of America, the "party of Elections to-day, the league having se-cured at least 3,000 signatures to its peti tion for a place on the official ballot. The official emblem, which will be guarded against kidnappers, is a clock with three hands, one pointing to 12, one to 4 and one to 8. The only candidate nominated s Cornelius Donovan, president of th tenants' union, for Mayor. Law says that the executive committee of the league will wait until the certificate is actually accepted and will then probably indorse some of the candidates of the other par-ties. Better tenement inspection and clear homes will be the platform of the league.

SCHOOL FOR SOCIALISTS.

Ceachers, Writers and Speakers to The Socialist party reported yesterds that it will open a Socialist training school in this city on October 14 for the develop-ment of Socialist teachers, writers and public speakers. Public sessions are to pedagogy for Socialist teachers, writers and speakers; elecution and oratory for street and forum speakers, economics for all agitators of socialism, harmonics for social, musical and instruments aids to spreading socialistic propaganda

MISSIONARIES NOT SATISFIED. West More Indomnity, Also

ment for Crimes at Adam Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 10.—The America missionaries in Turkey have to the American Ambassador that the proposed indemnities for the murder of missionaries in Adana are insufficient.

that the United Stat ament for the pro

MOORS SURRENDER TO SPAIN nen Starving Tell of Terrib

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

MADRID, Oct. 10.—A despatch from Melilla states that the Spaniards have need work on the railway to the mines, employing 500 Europeans and 300 Moors. The latter eagerly sought work to escape starvation. The Nador Barrska Kabyles have sured. They, say the war has ru confirm the reports that the Moors suf-fered heavy losses in the fighting on

The tribesmen themselves killed nin of their wounded whom they believed to be incurable. The Kabyles who have surrendered state that 4,000 Moors have been killed during the war.

RUDOLPH MUCH ARRESTED. Auto Speeder Gots Ball From the Alder

mante Marx Family. William Rudolph of 149 St. Nicholas avenue was arrested last night charged with running his automobile on St. Nicholas avenue at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour by Bicycle Policeman Dunn. Rudolph was taken to the West 125th street police station. Bail was fur-nished for him by Max Marx, a brother of Alderman Samuel Marx. Half an hour later Rudolph reappeared in the West 125th street station, having man White, charged with speeding at the rate of twenty miles an hour. Bail was furnished by Alderman Samuel Marx, a brother of Max.

JAPAN FEARS NO PROTEST. Thinks U. S. Will Not Attack the Agree ment With China as to Man Special Cable Despatch to Tun Sun.

LONDON, Oct., 11.—A despatch to the Firmes from Tokio says that not the least credence is attached there to the rumors that the United States will protest against the Manchurian agreement.

The newspapers remerk upon the absurdity of such action two months after the agreement reached Washington. It is believed the rumors are the preface to investments of American capital in China and are intended to pave the way for such investments.

ALL BUT THE COW

Busy on the East Side Shewing Up Tammany Minsteings.

The replica of the committee of 100's Horror of Union Square that was to have been put up on the East Side yesterday was held up for lack of a suitable cow All "the striking posters showing Tammany's graft, waste and extravagance" promised by the committee were in place at 125 East Broadway in the afternoon. There were signs in Yiddish and English uncompilmentary to the present regime, and there was also an appeal to elect some nice. signs in Yiddish and English uncomplimentary to the present regime, and there was also an appeal to elect some nice respectable milimaids to milk the city cow but as for the city cow she was not Agents were sent to Coney Island to see if they could borrow the cow that milks for 5 cents a glass.

There were were where Mr. Mulially repeated to the reporters that he was a "Christian gentle-man and a Southerner," after which he cow but as for the city cow she was not Agents were sent to Coney Island to see if they could borrow the cow that milks for 5 cents a glass.

Leonard Wood, commanding the Department of the East, left Camp Oliver to-day on a ninety-mile endurance horseback ride. The ride to-day was to Schemetady. They will return to Albany Tuesday, thirty miles being covered each day.

POLITICAL FOR IN A PEW

PRICE TWO CENTS.

WIGWAM CANDIDATE RESENTS

BANNARDS SPEECH. fullally Tells Dr. Stimpson's Derby Ro

That Parsons and Woodruff Fixed Pusion Ticket in a Tenderloin Pince Where You Can't Take Your St nd might say, the most interesting part of the Sunday night address of the fue candidate, Otto T. Bannard, in the Man hattan Congregational Church, Seve after the address had been finished. The Rev. Dr. Henry A. Stimpson, paster the church, after the addresses of Mi Sannard and John Purroy Mitchel, the youthful candidate for President of the Board of Aldermen, invited all who we nterested to come into the vestry and sit around and heckle the candidates.

The heckling went on as hecklings do: that is, several earnest young men go also as usual, that the way to get at it properly was first to make a long speeds to rid themselves of all their pol thoughts and incidentally thorons to answer the question or questions they were about to propound; and when they personally had answered the questi and nothing more was left to say on the subject they wound up by asking Mr. Bannard or Mr. Mitchel to answer the natters on their minds that the ques ers had just answered themselves. The addresses of Mr. Bannard and Mr. Mitchel were not especially exciting in hemselves; they had to do largely with an appeal to the aud#nce to see to it or election day that the men who will run the city from this time on are ho the city from this time on are honest business men who will conduct the city's business in a businesslike manner. The real fireworks didn't get under way even during the heckling in the vestry. It exploded with suddenness at the end of ll the questioning.

The Rev. Dr. Stimpson was the the audience for their attendance and the enexcited way in which everybody had nurled the questions and the au and candidates were preparing to go home when a young man arose to i for a few final words. He purposely b waited until all was over and then he said nis say.

The speaker wore the black frock coat and the long black hair over his brow that every one has come to associate with the Southern statesman. Also he had all the "a Southerner, a Christian gentleman and a Tammany candidate." His card, which he kindly handed the reporters after he had finished speaking, says that he is John R. Adger Mullally, counseller at law. He added that he is the Tammany candidate for Assembly in the Fifteenth dis-

"To begin with," he said to the me My father's father also was a doctor of divinity, and I am here to-night at the behest of several of the younger voters of this parish to protest against the holding of a political meeting in this church on Sunday night or any night.

"To-night I have sat here and listened to Mr. Bannard and this ways to be a sunday of the same state." Mr. Mitchel, malign candidat and have seen Mr. Bannard smile in reply to every serious question put to him toorator right here, but he proceeded evenly on his way, with all the facility for words that marks the Southern statesman. Dr. Stimpson began to wear a worried look, but Mr. Bannard's smile grew broader and broader. Mr. Mitchel leaned forward with growing interest.

The speaker went on to tell of a walf known all night restaurant in the Tenderloin. He painted it in as sombre a black as he could. Nobody within hearing, he said, would take his sister to that res-

"But early one morning in that restaurant," went on Mr. Mullally with growing fire, "Mr. Herbert Parsons and Mr. Pim Woodruff met in that restaurant and selected as candidate the man who has been speaking to you from the pulpit of this church to-night—this Mr. Bannard who smiles when you ask serious questions bout the conduct of the government of our city. And when they were selecting the candidates in that restaurant they sandwiched young Mr. Mitchel in be-tween Mr. Bannard and Mr. Prender-

"Now I'm not making a political speech," went on Mr. Mullaily earnestly. The uppear of laughter that greeted this remark, led by the pastor of the church, Mr. Bannard and Mr. Mitchel, seemed to sidetrack the train of thought that Mr. Mulially had been sending along. From this time on his remarks were largely a repetition of what he had said before. Finally Dr. Stimpson got a few words in edgewise, and the orator decided to bring his address to a close.

"But," he cried in conclusion. "I want to say this before I close: I believe there are many here to-night who agree with what I have said. Now," cried the orator dramatically, and there was a shuffling of feet in the audience even evening was on the subject "The City's Needs and What Thoughtful Men Can De." Throughout his short address he dwalt upon what he termed the crying need of New York for business men to